Afternoon Concert Sunday.

The Sells & Rentrow circus drew another large crowd out last evening. The performance was eminently satisfactory. A better 50-cent show never came west.

More rain and altogether unseasonably cold weather for June.

This weather is good for the growing crops, but bad for the lucerne hay crop.

J. G. LUTTON of Le Roy, N. Y., a prominent grocer and G. A. R. man says: "I have been troubled with indigestion and biliousness for years. Tried Parker's Tea and it has cured me. I recommend it to everybody." Sold by Smoot Drug company.

ALREADY are the school teachers beginning to gather in Provo for the summer school which opens July 9th.

MISS RUHAMA ADAMS, a school teacher of Orderville, Kane county, is in Provo visiting relatives and relatives. The lady will remain here until after the B. Y. A. summer school.

M. M. WARNER went to Salt Lake last evening.

ICE CREAM 25 cents a quart at Elite bakery, opposite postoffice.

Join the crowd and be with the "noble tribe" at Calder's park June 23 and 24. Half rates via the R. G. W.

For a good meal for very little money go to the Provo City Bakery and Chop House, No. 116 West Center street.

FOUND—A lady's purse containing some silver and a key. Owner can have same by applying to this office and paying for this notice.

Those baby carriages at Gates Furniture company's are strong, elegant and cheap. These qualities must move them along at a rapid rate.

HAVECAMP & CO. are making farm loans, three to five years. Interest 10 per cent. Write them, Provo, Utah.

DEVON, a don't Irvine & Barney has the finest display in their window of ladies' and misses' fashions ever seen in Provo. Call and see them.

LADIES' and gents' clothing cleaned, dyed, and repaired at Van Voorhis & Co's. Opposite county courthouse.

REFRIGERATORS, best makes, lowest prices at Taylor Brothers company.

ONE of the brightest spots in town, is the counter whereon Irvine & Barney display their new spring dress goods and trimmings to match.

FREE wool couldn't put the prices of clothing much lower than Irvine & Barney have them just now.

Dr. J. F. NEVES is before the public of Provo and vicinity for business. His card is to be found in the professional column of this paper. This young man is well known and well liked in Provo. He has recently graduated from the University of Louisville, Kentucky, in which city he practiced as a regular physician and surgeon for some months after graduating. The doctor also had six months practice in the university dispensary in addition to the regular course. He is a well qualified man and may be depended upon to give entire satisfaction always.

COMMISSIONER DUDLEY returned this morning from a visit to Salt Lake. The judge is having the spring cleaning act done about his quarters in the First National bank building, and what with new carpets, new furniture, re-arrangement of library, etc., one hardly knows when he calls in upon the judge whether he is in a law office or some lady's parlor.

Mrs. Wm. H. GAGE is up from Nephi for a short visit with her uncle and aunt Postmaster and Mrs. Roberts.

"HIRE" SMITH pleaded guilty of fornication this morning and Commissioner Dudley bound him over in $300 bonds to appear before the grand jury. The bonds were given.

SHERIFF BROWN is over in Lehi today. He placed one man under arrest this morning on a charge of house breaking and is now on a still hunt for some harness, saddles and other property that has recently been stolen there.

SOMETHING interesting concerning a rich gold find within six hours drive from Provo is expected "to drop" soon. The finders have had two assays made that run very high. Others are being made.

AND now the small boys begin again to save nickels. The Fourth of July is near at hand.

The Enquirer does not brag as much now over our republican city administration as it did before election—it is now making excuses, unsolicited, for the council. A heavy city tax will have to be levied this year, and it is not the fault of the last administration, either. The warrants outstanding with no cash to redeem them cry being raised by the Enquirer tells heavier than two to one on the present council than on the last.

The Salt Lake papers report the receipt in that market of trout shot with giant powder from the Provo river.

CHILDREN'S, misses' and ladies' tanned slippers at bed rock prices, at Farrer Brothers & Co's.
